Assignment Expectations

Conducting quality, ethical research is vital to successfully completing any college-level written assignment. A common way to begin researching a topic is by creating an annotated bibliography. An annotated bibliography is a summary of relevant literature that highlights the primary ways in which that literature is relevant to your topic. You are required to identify three (3) relevant sources and provide each with an appropriate annotation.

This assignment has three (3) required components: 1) you must identify at least three (3) sources appropriate to your Media Review, 2) write a one (1) paragraph summary of each source, and 3) utilize proper formatting to cite your sources in APA Style. Sources might include a professionally written review of the media you have chosen, reviews of similar media, journalistic or scholarly work about the media, or even a book related to the media. An example and a template are provided for you in Desire2Learn (D2L). As you will note in the example, a properly formatted annotated bibliography begins by citing a source in APA Style and then summarizing the relevant content of that source in a paragraph. To ensure proper formatting, download the template, save it your computer, and begin typing your own assignment in the template document.

Assignment Submission
