

JASON LEE GUTHRIE

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

+1 678-466-4746

jasonguthrie@clayton.edu

Carnes Hall for Music, 208

About Me

Jason Lee Guthrie is an Assistant Professor of Communication and Media Studies at Clayton State University in Morrow, Georgia. Jason is a media historian interested in the intersections of creativity and economics. He has specific interests in the creative industries and intellectual property law.

Experience

Clayton State University 2019 - Present

Assistant Professor of Communication and Media Studies

Teach courses in media production and theory. Serve the University and the community in various roles. Produce research and apply and win grant funding in my field.

Samford University 2018 - 2021

Assistant Professor of Broadcast Journalism

Teach courses in media production, journalism, and film. Serve the University and the community in various roles. Produce research and apply and win grant funding in my field.

Education

2018

University of Georgia

Ph.D.

Dissertation entitled "Authors and Inventors: The Ritual Economy of Early American Copyright"

2011

Appalachian State University

M.A.

Masters in Educational Media
Graduate Certificate in Distance Education

2009

UNC - Wilmington

B.A.

Magna Cum Laude
Emphasis in Video Production

Media

Audio

Video

Photo

Graphics

Courses

- Podcasting
- Visual Design
- Photography
- Broadcasting

Reference

Susan McFarlane-Alvarez

Michigan State University

Email

mcfar124@msu.edu